

Linear conservation laws subject to initial and final conditions

Olivier Besson, Université de Neuchâtel (Suisse)

Joint work with Jérôme Pousin (INSA Lyon)

An existence and uniqueness result for a linear conservation laws subject to initial and final conditions is given. Some numerical simulations of a linear conservation law with a non well known velocity field are shown. An application to cardiac image reconstruction is presented.